A Fatal Accident.

About 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon
Nov. 2nd, while Mrs. Jack Bihartz and daughter were ironing at their near Biry, they had some gasoline in an open vessel with which they were cleaning clothes. Little Wesley Bihartz, a year and six months old was playing in the room which was closed on account of the cold.

The heat from the ironing plate caused some of the gasoline to volatilize and the gas caught fire.

The clothing was burned from the little one's body quicker than it takes to light and he was so badly burned that he died two hours and a half later despite all that could be done to save him. The remains were buried at Castro-ville the following day, an account of which appears in our Castroville letter. The little one's sister, Miss Irene Bihartz, aged 15 years, was so badly burned about the hands in trying to extinguish the flames as to also require the services of a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Bihartz have the sympathy of all who know them in their great sorrow.

Hondo High vs Uvalde High.
The local boys met the Uvalde High team at Uvalde last Saturday in the game of football between these teams.

Hondo kicked to Uvalde. By line play they advanced the ball to the twenty yard line when Knox of Uvalde went through Hondo's line for a touchdown. Goal was kicked. Hondo made the next touchdown on a forward pass to Van Fleet. Miller kicked. Score: Hondo 7, Uvalde 7.

The remaining time Uvalde made two touchdowns and failed at goals kicking nineteen points in all. Hondo led to score again.

The players for Uvalde were Sharley,
Harris and Chinn. On defense,
Miller starred for Hondo. Van

Fleet, Miller and Windrow also did good work.

Died.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs.
J. W. Bendele, twelve miles southwest of Castroville, Mrs. Alexis Pingenot, nee Pichot, last Saturday Nov.
2nd, 1912. She was born at Milly, Department de la Meuse, France, on June 24th, 1826, therefore was 86 years, 4 months and 9 days at the time of her demise. She left Europe Nov. 1st, 1842, with her father Jean Nicolas Pichot, a sister, Marie, (who afterwards was the wife of Gerhard Ihn-ken,) and a brother, Jean Nicolas Pichot, on the ship Ebro, at the age of sixteen years, came to Castroville in September, 1848, as one of Castro's Colonists, and located there. At the age of twenty years she was happily married to P. Pingenot. Their union was blessed with nine children, (one of whom was former County Treasurer, Celestin Pingenot) only three of whom survive her, a son, Louis, of Del Rio, Texas, Mary, wife of Jac.
W. Bendele, and Emily Pingenot, also 26 grand-children and several great grand-children. In common with all pioneers, she endured many of the hardships of a frontier country, but always was of a cheerful nature, and the last three years she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bendele.
Her remains were brought to Castroville, her old home, and laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery, after requiem mass, Rev. Father Heckman, officiating, a large number of relatives and friends attending their esteem by attending the funeral. A good woman has gone to her reward. XX.

To the voters of Justice Precinct
No. 1: I take this means of thanking all those who voted for me for public weigher in the election of last Tuesday and assure you that your confidence in me is appreciated. While my opponent won by a majority of seven votes I appreciate your support just the same and accept my defeat without ill will towards any one.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy extended to us in our great sorrow.

to us. We assure one and all that your kindness is gratefully appreciated.

GOVERNOR COLQUITT.

WOODROW WILSON.

The Election.

The election of Tuesday resulted in a landslide for the Democrats. Wilson was elected President, Roosevelt ran second and Taft trailed far in the rear.
The Democrats will have an overwhelming majority in the lower house of Congress and will control the Senate.

In the state the Democratic ticket was elected and all of the Amendments appear to have carried.

Locally, the election was very quiet.
All old county officials were elected without opposition, the only contests being in the various precincts in which the following results are recorded:

Commissioner, Precinct 1:
Brucks 243
Wiemers 125

Brucks' majority 118
Commissioner, Precinct 2:
Tschirhart 209
Haass 140

Tschirhart's majority 69
Commissioner, Precinct 3:
J. B. Ney 149

Commissioner, Precinct 4:
Grant 166
Howard 134

Grant's majority 32
Public Weigher, Precinct 1:
Crow 141
Hueser 134

Charter Amendment:
For 405
Against 170

Prison Amendment:
For 360
Against 218

Regents Amendment:
For 375
Against 478

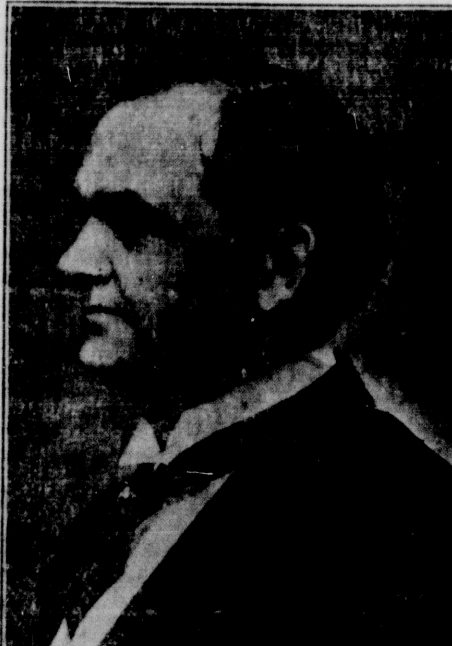

Pension Amendment:
For 379
Against 228

Elsewhere will be found a tabulated report of the result for President and Governor by precincts in the county.

A Card.

To the voters of Justice of Peace Precinct No. 1, Medina County, Texas:
I take this means of expressing my heartfelt thanks to the voters of this precinct for the generous support and re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace of your humble servant and do now pledge myself to dispense justice as I have heretofore done for the past eighteen years, without fear or favor and with equal justice to all and special privileges to none, to the best of my ability, with the support of the members of the Hondo bar.

Thankfully and humbly yours,
A. M. LAMM.

REV. M. K. FRED

"WHEREAS, it has pleased the Creator of the universe to remove from ting recognition of his many virtues should be had; therefore be it

"RESOLVED, by the Bois D'Arc Camp, No. 154, W. O. W., that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been removed from our midst.

"RESOLVED, that in the death of John Cruseturner this Camp, No. 154, laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy tive member of this camp, whose endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and brother who was dear to us all.

"RESOLVED, that we sincerely con-dole with the family of the deceased, and that the heartfelt sympathy of this camp be extended to them in their affliction.

"RESOLVED, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Camp and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother and to each of the newspapers of Hondo.

Calomel Is Dangerous

Is a Powerful Chemical Made from Mercury—People Should be Careful

The only sure way to avoid the danger of calomel is to take no calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tone, a vegetable liquid of pleasant taste, more than takes its place. Where calomel shakes you up and shocks your liver, Dodson's Liver-Tone, mild but effective, builds up and strengthens. It "liven-

It may be taken without any restriction of diet or habits. You can give it to your children with fine results.

Get a bottle at W. H. Windrow's and if it doesn't do all that you think it ought—if it doesn't make bilious spells mere trifles—if it doesn't "liven up your liver," your money will be waiting for you.

ture. Beware of killing does.

Reinhart-Rothe.

Mr. Fred Reinhart and Miss Alice Rothe were happily married, last Tuesday morning, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Rothe, Rev. Falkenberg, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Hondo, performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of one of the most renowned stockmen of Medina County, and the groom is the son of Mr. Jacob Reinhart an equally successful neighbor-stockman to Mr. Rothe.

After the ceremony, and tender of congratulations and heartiest wishes to the newly wedded pair, the bridal party led the way to the back porch, which was converted into a dining room for the occasion, where breakfast was served to all who were present.

Arrangements having been made for the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reinhart on the morning west bound train, there was only enough time left after breakfast for them to look over the beautiful lot of wedding presents given, when they had to bid adieu to their many friends and relatives. Among showers of rice, old shoes etc., they left the home of the bride, being accompanied to the station by the attendants and a large number of guests.

To the Social Circle, formed in this community some years ago, the loss of Miss Alice is adjudged irreparable.
She was at all times a leader and instigator in all that stood for closer friendship and real enjoyment of life.

Though Fred was away from home the greater part of the time for over five years, his recent return from Mexico, and the short stay with his old friends and relatives inspired them with old-time esteem not soon to be forgotten again.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reinhart will spend a few days in El Paso, Texas, whence they go to Bisbee, Arizona, where they will make their new home.

The attendants were Miss Elsie Rothe and Mr. Arthur Reinhart, and Miss Laura Reinhart and Mr. Arthur Rothe.

"A little health, a little wealth,
A little house and freedom,
With some few friends

For certain ends,
But little cause to need 'em.

This is the life-long wish, expressed in the words of the great poet, that comes to them from every heart that knows them.

The Anvil Herald joins in congratulations and best wishes.

In Loving Remembrance Of Little Wesley Bilhartz.

In life we are to death so near
That we should not grieve
If one that was to us so dear
From us should take his leave.

So it was with little Wesley
He has left you, all too soon;
Left you all here in your sorrow;
His death o'er you has cast a gloom.

He has gone from you forever,
And you no more will see him here;
You think there is no greater sorrow
For to you he was so dear.

Indeed, he was so dear to you,
It's hard, so very hard;
Indeed, you all loved him so true
And yet you had to part.

Despair not, tender loving parents,
Do not break down in your grief;
Weep not faithful, loving brother,
Though from you he took his leave.

Now your hearts are sore and weary,
But it will not be for aye;
Though now all is dark and dreary,
Think once, there'll come a glad some day.

Once there'll be a glad tomorrow
And you'll see him face to face,
From your hearts you'll banish sorrow
When your darling you'll embrace.

When you'll see your angel baby,
On the bright and golden shore.
When you meet your darling Wesley,
Smiling as he did of yore.

There will be a happy union,
In that far off peaceful land;
Always with your darling Wesley,
Always with him, hand in hand.

Therefore, grieve not, parents, sisters,
And brothers,
Think of that home far above,
When you will be with your Wesley,
All in union and in love.

A Sick Man

Writes Dr. Hartman About Kidney Disease.

A gentleman writes me: "I was greatly interested in your article describing the Knuffman case of serious disease of the kidneys. The description of his case exactly outlines my condition. I am sure if Peruna cured him, it would cure me also. I am losing flesh rapidly and the doctors say I have every symptom of Bright's disease of the kidneys. If you think I would be benefited by Peruna I will certainly try some as the doctors have practically given me up, the same as they did him."

In reply I wish to say, first, that I never make any promises as to what Peruna will cure. No physician can make positive statements of that sort. I can say this much, however, if I were in your place I should certainly give Peruna a trial. I know of no other remedy that would be so likely to be of use to you in your present condition as Peruna. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Continue this for two or three weeks and then if there is anything you wish to ask me further write me and I will give your letter prompt attention.

If I find that the Peruna is not helping you I will be perfectly frank and tell you so, for I would not have you take Peruna unless it was really helping you. But it has reached so many cases of kidney disease that I am quite confident you will find it exactly suited to your case.

Kidney disease begins with catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. Unless the destruction of the kidneys is already too great Peruna relieves the catarrh and the cause of the kidney disease is removed.

I shall anxiously await a report of your case. Remember, all letters are sacredly confidential. I never use any one's name or address without his written consent. My correspondence is absolutely private. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of K.A.T.A.R-N-O, manufactured by K.A.T.A.R-N-O Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

SYMPTOMS OF CONSUMPTION

Yield to Vinol.

The medical profession do not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease.

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.)

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

A number of our citizens went to Hondo Monday, as Grand and Petit Jurors and witnesses in District Court.

Leopold Haby and son, Titus, were Castroville business visitors Wednesday.

The Dance given by the Castroville Brass Band boys at Wernette's Opera House on Wednesday night, was a swell affair, both financially and socially. The best of order prevailed.

A chilly norther put in its appearance Thursday, and frost formed both Friday and Saturday morning's.

The Feasts, All Saints, and All Souls, were observed in the usual manner at St. Louis Catholic Church Friday and Saturday by religious Services.

Our popular Tax Assessor, H. B. Taylor of Hondo, was a Castroville visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Heiser of Center Point attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Aug. Mangold Sr. Friday. Mrs. Heiser is a sister of the departed.

The sad news reached us Saturday evening that a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bilhartz of Briar Branch had been accidentally burned by gasoline causing the little sufferer's death three hours later.

Mr. Gus. Brieden was a Castroville visitor Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Brieden and family visited relatives and friends at Dunlay Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maurer on Saturday, Nov. 2nd, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. John Droitcourt, on the same day and date, also a son.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."

"Don't sleep in hot rooms."

"Don't avoid the fresh air."

"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over-eating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

People who are free at giving advice are apt to get vexed if any is given them in return.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For Sale by W. H. Windrow.

Died.

Mrs. Aug. Mang 11 Sr. (nee Grim-singer) died at her home here on Thursday evening October 31, and was laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery on Friday evening.

As we have failed to secure particulars up to date, a more definite notice will appear in our next letter.

Mrs. Alexis Pingnot (nee Pichot) died at the home of her daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bendele of Francisco on Saturday morning, Nov. 2nd, and was brought to town Sunday and laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

A more extensive sketch appears in another column.

Wesley, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bilhartz (aged two years) died at his home on Saturday night Nov. 2. The little corpse was brought to town Sunday afternoon and laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery, escorted by a large cortege of mourning relatives and friends. Rev. Father Heckman performed the last sad rites. We join in sympathy with the bereaved and grief-stricken parents.

Hedwig, the eldest daughter (aged five years) of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Tschirhart died at her home on Saturday night Nov. 2nd, and the little Corpse was laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery on Sunday evening. The last sad rites again being performed by Rev. Father Heckmann. We sincerely join this entire community in sympathy with the grief-stricken parents.

SOMETHING For the LITTLE ONES

BEDROOM SET FOR THE GIRLS

Very Pretty, Simple and Inexpensive Furniture May Be Made of Plain, Heavy Muslin.

A very pretty, simple and inexpensive bedroom set may be made of plain heavy muslin, the kind that you pay ten cents a yard for. Make the bed spread in the shape of a wide sheet, slashed at the lower corners so that it will hang over the foot and sides of the bed nicely. About the edge of the bedspread put a broad band of fadeless red or blue cotton cloth. Above this band—draw a design of a winding vine and small tendrils and leaves. This should be close to the band. Chain-stitch the design in fadeless cotton the same color as the band.

A dresser scarf and pillow valance or shams are made in the same way, as are the covers for cushions, trunk, shoe box and window seat. Even the window curtains may be made of the muslin, trimmed in the same way as the rest of the set, with pleasing effect. As these covers can be tubbed frequently, a girl may have a fresh and immaculately clean room all the time.

Another pretty set of bed room covers is made of a striped cotton stuff. Avoid dark colors. Pale pink, lavender and light brown make up a harmonious whole which is pleasing in effect. The bed spread if made of striped or colored material should have a broad valance, reaching from the edge of the top of the mattress to the floor. The window curtains, pillow, box and trunk covers may be made of the same, as also the cushion tops. But the dresser top should always be in white.

Eyes Sunken With Pain

Three years ago I had a very bad spell of neuralgia which caused my eyes to become sunken and bloodshot with pain. Hunt's Lightning Oil was recommended and after using, the pain left and has not returned, says A. M. Coffey, 316 Van Buren Street, Litchfield, Ill. This wonderful medicine is sold by all druggists everywhere.

It seems that a good many authors get their ideas of Greek gods from the clothing advertisements.

Not Fit For Ladies

Public sentiment should be against it, and we believe it is, there is no reason why ladies should have to suffer with headache and neuralgia, especially when Hunt's Lightning Oil gives such prompt relief. It is simply a question of getting the ladies to try it. All druggists sell Hunt's Lightning oil in 25c and 50c bottles.

There are many people who could reduce their grocery bills and doctor bill by the same method.

More About The Reservoir Litigation.

Says the Lytle Herald:
We had intended not to have anything more to say on the subject of the litigation between the Medina reservoir land owners and the Medina Valley Irrigation Co., and we would not further discuss the case if we did not consider it of such vital importance. We doubt if the Thirty-eighth District Court was ever called upon to decide a case of more importance than this. It should be of interest not only to people living on this project, but to men in every part of Texas. It is possible the question of whether we are to receive as much foreign capital as formerly for the development of our resources is involved.

This last statement makes us tired. Foreign capital knows our laws and the best assurance we have of receiving more capital is to show it that these laws will be enforced—that it need expect no more and no less—and the state will be better off without any concern that expects any thing else.

The Hondo Anvil Herald says he is astonished at the Lytle Herald because it proceeds to give its opinion as to this case.

Slightly mistaken there. Read our editorial again.

—and then in the same editorial says—

—And expresses a correct opinion honestly formed.

—the question will likely be more properly settled when it is brought before judges and lawyers.

We fail to see much cause for the astonishment. Men and newspapers everywhere, that have the courage of their convictions, give their opinions. If an editor gave no opinions, how much editorial page would he have? These opinions, however, do not seem to worry the courts to any great extent. We have two sets of courts in this country: One of these courts gets its evidence in an accurate, systematic way, and hands down a decision. The other is the court of public opinion: this court gets perhaps seven-eighths of its evidence from newspapers, and the balance from hearsay, and gives an opinion.

All the more reason why the newspapers should voice only correct opinions honestly formed—what you have admitted in effect that you have not done.

—We could not get on without our legal courts. We could not get on without our court of public opinion; if it was suppressed we would be in the condition of the people of Russia.

The Lytle Herald is a member of the court of public opinion, and like the other members of this court who have heard the customary court of opinion evidence as to the case under consideration, we have our verdict ready.

The evidence before the court of public opinion says the men whose property will be submerged wish the privilege of placing a price on their lands; and under ordinary circumstances their right to do this would not be questioned.

Nor can it be questioned now unless the M. V. I. Co. can claim it under the right of eminent domain—a recourse to which it could and should have resorted before endangering the lives and the property of the people—in which event the price of the lands will be fixed by a commission duly constituted of citizens of the country and with all of the facts before them to be duly considered. In this event the holders must take and the M. V. I. Co. must pay the price fixed by the commission.

sive and permanent reservoir site.

But let us see. The Lytle Herald probably occupies a lot worth about $30 "before the M. V. I. Co. came". If by the success of the company the town grows into a city and the Herald property becomes as a consequence thereof worth a thousand dollars a front foot by your logic the M. V. I. Co., or any other covetous concern of superior financial strength, should be allowed to come and take it and force you to accept whatever it chose to offer you. Think you would calmly agree to that?

Take the matter calmly and deliberately home to yourself, and, then, we would like to ask you whether you still think it would be more equitable for the M. V. I. Co. to fix the price of the lands it must acquire than for the holders to fix the price of property they have the fortune to hold and must relinquish?

But we would not have noticed the matter further but for this paragraph:

The Lytle Herald is astonished at the Hondo Anvil Herald if it is a member of the court of public opinion, should say the men whose lands would be submerged, should be given the privilege of charging a $1000 an acre; and thereby retard and maybe stop a great development work, and injure all the State of Texas by the discouragement of foreign capital for financing other projects.

The Lytle Herald could spare itself its astonishment, for the Anvil Herald has not made such an unqualified statement. Neither is the Anvil Herald going to say they have not the right to so price their lands until the courts have decided the status of the M. V. I. Co. If entitled to the lands as a public service concern there is a legal process by which they can acquire the property needed. If it is a private concern seeking only its own profit it must pay—and rightly so—such a sum as will satisfy the holders of the property or it can have no legal right to hold or use the property involved. The duty of the men to themselves and their families which impels them to demand all their property is worth is certainly superior to any duty they owe to any one to sacrifice it that others may profit by attracting capital to the state. It is of vastly more importance to the state that the legal rights of the humblest citizen be protected and preserved inviolate than that all of the capital of the world be attracted here only to become the prey of some stronger concern whenever it chooses to take it, as the Lytle Herald seems to think the M. V. I. Co. should do the lands of the present holders.

A GREAT man is always willing to be little. While he sits on the cushion of advantage he goes to sleep. When he is pushed, tormented, defeated, he has a chance to learn something. He has been put on his wits, on his manhood. He has gained facts. He learns his ignorance; is cured of the insanity of conceit; has got moderation and real skill. The wise man always throws himself on the side of his assailants. It is more to his interests than it is to theirs to find his weak point. The wound cicatrizes and falls off from him like a dead skin, and when they who would triumph, lo! he has passed on invulnerable. As long as all that is said against me, I feel a certain assurance of success; but as soon as honeyed words of praise are spoken for me, I feel as one that lies unprotected before his enemies.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

ONE can hardly pick up a paper where he doesn't notice an article written "In Loving Memory" by a friend. It seems to the pencil pusher that the world pays too much attention to the dead and not enough to the living. Sing your songs, pluck your flowers and speak your eul-

Martin, Inabnit & Company
Rexall Druggists

If the M. V. I. Co. can not claim the lands under this law then the difference the Lytle Herald professes to see does not exist, and the holders could refuse absolutely to sell or could fix the price as the Herald suggests they might in the following—

But this is a very different proposition. If given the right to price their lands they would have every advantage of the M. V. I. Company.

Or by the same rule, vice versa, you must admit!

—They know the company must have their lands, so if they were disposed to do so, they could ask a $1000 an acre for lands worth no more than $5.00 or $10.00 an acre before the M. V. I. Company came.

And a price which they would probably get without any quibbles had it been oil discovered on their lands instead of what may prove more valuable—an exclu-

THE FISHERMAN.

HE was a lad of high degree,
She was a farmer's daughter.
He came to fish the silver lee,
Or did he come to court her?
"Oh, angle where you will," quoth she.

"The little trout may swim to thee,
But never think that you'll catch me."
Yet where was that fair maiden born
But felt her heart beat higher
To see a lordling look forth
And beg to come which her?

"Stray nearer if you must," quoth she,
"Since 'tis an act of charity."
But never try to speak to me."

The woodland ways are sweet and green
Under the summer weather.
And through the dingle, through the dene,
Go boy and girl together.

"You held my hand because," quoth she,
"The stepping stones were slippery,
But now I'm over, let it be."

A heart that burns a breast that sighs,
Red lips with promise laden.
A pleading voice and bright brown eyes—
Alas, my pretty maiden!

"Can such a king of men," quoth she,
"Look down to wed a girl like me?
Then will I trust my soul to thee."

She sits amid the yellow sheaves,
That little farmer's daughter,
Or counts the scarlet cherry leaves
Fall on the shining water.

"Red gaves and river deep," quoth she,
"Come hide my tear worn heart for me Bath broken and forgotten me!"

Housekeeping Is Not the Task It Used to Be

MODERN invention has done away with much of the hard work. For instance, the cleaning and polishing of hardwood floors, the dusting of moldings, the tops of high furniture, the stairs, under the radiator, etc. These back-breaking tasks are now made easy with the

O-Cedar Mop Polish

With it you can dust, clean and polish a hardwood floor in the time it formerly took you to get ready to do it.

Besides, you do not have to get down on your hands and knees to dust under the bed or other hard-to-get-at places, or to stand on a chair to dust the top of the high furniture. All of the hard work is now made easy with the O-Cedar Mop. It gathers all the dust or dirt from everywhere and holds it. The mop is easily cleaned by washing and then renewed by pouring on a few drops of O-Cedar Polish.

Try It at Our Risk Try it two whole days with this understanding: If you do not find it satisfactory in every respect we will return your money. The price is only $1.50 and it will save its price many times over in a short time.

GULF COAST EXPOSITION

AS CARNIVAL DRAWS NEARER, GREATER INTEREST GROWS
IN LAND EXPOSITION.

SPACE IN EXHIBIT HALL FILLING

The Display of Agricultural, Horticultural and Floral Products From Many Counties in State Will Be Many and Varied.

Day by day, as the time for the opening of the Fourteenth No-Tsu-Oh Carnival and Gulf Coast Land Exposition at Houston draws nearer, the interest more nearly approaches fever heat, and progressive, live-wire communities throughout the Gulf Coast country are applying for space in the exhibit hall in which to display the products of their soil. The directors of the association have decided to arrange space for these exhibits, and to freely welcome displays of agricultural, floral and horticultural products. El Campo, Victoria, Nacogdoches, Beaumont, Orange, Bay City, Brownsville and many other progressive communities will have splendid exhibits and already the success of this feature of Houston Carnival week, November 11 to 16, is assured beyond question. So ready and so numerous have been the responses to the invitation extended to take advantage of this opportunity to display the soil products of the Gulf Coast country, the directors of the No-Tsu-Oh Association are planning to make the Gulf Coast Land Exposition a permanent feature in Houston. Propositions for the permanent location of this exposition are being examined and it is expected that before another twelve-month shall have passed the Gulf Coast Land Exposition will be housed in buildings erected especially for the purpose, and homeseekers from all over the country will be looking forward to the time when they can visit Houston and see what wonderful improvements and what splendid developments have been accomplished since this first display of 1912. It is a wonderful opportunity now for enterprising agricultural communities to get in on the ground floor and reap the benefits to be derived from this initial display—and many will take advantage of this opportunity for the week of November 11 to 16.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at W. H. Windrow's.

PRESS DAY AT CARNIVAL

ASSURED THAT BOYS OF THE FOURTH ESTATE WILL BE IN HOUSTON CARNIVAL WEEK.

ADVISED KING OF THEIR COMING

A Special Day Has Been Set Apart for the "Press Gang" and on That Day There Will Be "Something Doing" All the While.

That the boys of the Fourth Estate are coming to Houston in numbers during the week of November 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 is a foregone conclusion, for have they not already advised the courier of King Nottoc XIV that they will assemble in his favorite city at that time to do him homage? A special day has been set apart for the "press gang" and on that day there will be something doing all the while. There will be tickets of admission to the carnival attractions, music by the bands, visits to the agricultural and horticultural displays, a feast just such as is enjoyed to the utmost by the pencil pushers, and a general good time that will make the visiting newspaper workers feel that it was good, indeed, to have been there, and which will result in wonderful good to Houston and to the entire Gulf Coast country. There will be few events in connection with the No-Tsu-Oh Carnival and Gulf Coast Land Exposition of greater or more far-reaching importance than Press Day, and the newspaper men will be given the glad hand of welcome on that day, and on every other day that they choose to honor Houston with their presence.—Houston Post.

PRINCESS VICTORIA.

The Smallest Entertainer Now Before the Public—No Larger Than a Doll, Height 25½ inches.

One of the attractions of the No-Tsu-Oh Carnival which will exhibit at Houston this year is dainty little Princess Victoria, an Australian singing comedienne, who is about as big as 60 seconds. She is known in vaudeville as the Miniature Madame Melba, and while her voice has scarcely the volume of the famous prima donna, she has a splendid singing voice and a winning personality that makes her entertainment nothing short of marvelous. Princess Victoria looks all she claims—the smallest entertainer now before the public. She has to be seen to be appreciated. Her height is but 25½ inches; she weighs only 19½ pounds, and was born in far off Australia over 22 years ago.

The countless discomforts and inconveniences that the average traveler undergoes on the regulation Pullman sleeper would become positive hardships to a diminutive lady of Princess Victoria's size. Imagine a person only 25½ inches high, struggling into a Pullman berth, and if she were by chance forced to take an upper she would have to be stowed away by the unfeeling porter, like a doll on a toy shop shelf. No chair in the ordinary dining car is high enough for her to sit on with any comfort, and the attention she always attracts from a car full of curious passengers is at times very annoying. To do away with any possible uneasiness on the part of the little Princess, Manager Abrahams has secured a special, private car, completely and luxuriously furnished, from the stateroom with its miniature bed, and dresser, a perfectly finished bathroom, drawing room, dining service, kitchen and glass enclosed observation platform. In this royally equipped traveling home the little doll lady lives during her journeys across the country, and with a well trained corps of maids, footmen and porters, there is no comfort lacking in her palace on wheels.

ALFRED THE GREAT.

The $2,000 a Week New York Hippodrome Monkey Will Be One of the Star Attractions.

Alfred the Great, the $2,000 a week New York Hippodrome monkey, will be one of the star attractions at the free No-Tsu-Oh shows to be given in the Auditorium during the entire period of the carnival. While "Alf" was born a monkey in the jungles of Africa, he has, within the twelve years of his life, developed into a near-man, with all the fastidious whims and appetites of a typical New Yorker. Alfred stops at the best hotel, has his meals served in his room, drives his own automobile, uses dental floss and a Prophylactic, takes his morning scrub and daily exercise, sports a four-carat diamond stud like any well-bred gentleman. He has a valet with whom he converses in broken English, and is as particular about his dressing room as any star actor.

Alfred the Great is now performing in the New York Hippodrome and will be in Houston at the Auditorium for one week, beginning November 11. He will be one of the leading features of the free shows offered by the No-Tsu-Oh Association.

RAISING TICK-PROOF CATTLE

A Texas dealer is developing cross-bred cattle that are absolutely immune to the Texas fever tick—the insect responsible for an annual loss in the South alone of from $40,000,000 to $100,000,000. This new breed is the result of six years of experimenting and is being watched by experts with the keenest interest.

What these tick-proof cattle are, how they are made immune and who the discoverer is, are all explained by H. D. Smith, of the Kansas Agricultural College, in the article,

Five Other Big Features in This Issue Are:

Have You Made Your House Spark-Proof? by Harry Snowden Stabler, the insurance and financial expert. This is one of a very valuable series of articles on "Our $100,000,000 Fire Waste." It explains many practical precautions that will prevent fires in country houses.

Shall We Grow Or Buy Peaches? by Professor Frank A. Waugh, head of the Horticultural Department of the Massachusetts Agricultural College, an expert at the Massachusetts Experiment Station and one of the country's leading authorities on peach culture.

Ready-Made Farms, by A. C. Laut. An interesting account of how the new settlers in the West are helped by the better government and the land companies to get a good start on new land.

Our Living From Ten Acres. A personal account of the experiences of a man who started an irrigation farm in Idaho and succeeded from the beginning, written by J. E. Butler—the man who did it.

The Burnt Hills Claim, by Francis Lynde. A story of pioneer adventure and love, by the author of a number of popular Western novels. It will be published in two parts.

Nearly a Scandal

"Where's Mrs. Twitchell? I haven't seen her for an age," asked her neighbor, Phyllis West.

"Haven't you heard?" mysteriously answered Mrs. Nelson in a low tone. "Poor thing, she's gone home suddenly to her mother. The whole town is talking about it."

"About what? Why this sympathy? They're an ideally happy couple."

"Appearances are often deceiving. The night before Mrs. Twitchell left her husband was seen leaving that house on the corner of Elmwood street, the white one with the green roof, after midnight, while his wife most likely was sitting at home grief-stricken at his actions. The woman," added Mrs. Keene, "was distinctly heard to say as she bid him goodby, 'Isn't your patience exhausted? No other husband would wait so long.'"

"Wait for what?" inquired Phyllis perplexedly.

"How do I know, unless she was insinuating about a divorce. My heart rings for that young wife."

"There's some mistake," said Phyllis. "The trouble with this town is, that the people are so busy minding other people's business that they don't have time to tend to their own. If they hear any gossip they immediately relate it to their five best friends, and it then becomes a scandal. Will Twitchell waited for his wife for seven years, because she was needed at home. It isn't likely that he would neglect her after a year."

"I hope you're right, my dear," said Mrs. Keene, as she said goodby to her neighbor.

On her way downtown Phyllis met Will Twitchell, who stopped her saying he was so happy he must talk to some one. "My wife is coming home tomorrow and it will seem like home once again."

"Will she be as delighted to return as you are to have her?" asked Phyllis, fearfully.

"Of course, though she's had a never-to-be-forgotten time at her sister's wedding."

"Was that the reason she left so suddenly?"

"Yes; my sister-in-law was married sooner than she expected. Elma had to have a new gown. The train left at 7:30 in the morning and at 10 p. m. the night before the dressmaker hadn't completed that dress. Elma was so worried that I hurried over to the dressmaker's house and sat there until it was finished. In fact, I was afraid to return without it."

"Did you have to wait long?" asked Phyllis.

"Until nearly 12 o'clock. That woman must have sewed miles of hooks and eyes on that blamed frock while I sat in that hot, stuffy parlor."

"Does your wife's dressmaker live in the little white and green house on the corner?"

"Yes, but don't go there. I'm sure I never will again."

"Well, I'm glad I met you; but I must hurry along; have some calls to make."

Phyllis made about 14 calls that afternoon only to find the chief topic of conversation to be the abuse of the husband and the sympathy for his wife, but the scandal did not have much chance to grow, as Phyllis took great haste to repeat her conversation with Will.

"I've been so lonesome without you," said Twitchell, as he greeted his wife. "The neighbors were not nearly as sociable as when you're at home."

"I'm so happy to be back again, darling. I'm positive no other woman has a husband half as good and loving and faithful as you," said Mrs. Twitchell, happy in the ignorance of how her husband had been slandered, and how she had been sympathized with by her neighbors.

An Ideal Man.

"What he needs," says the aggravated young woman, "is some one to give him a good snubbing—the kind of a snubbing that will make him feel mean and little and helpless. But I can't imagine who could snub him in a way to penetrate his colossal conceit."

"I know the very man," says the listener. "I know a fellow who works in the winter in a theater box office and in the summer is clerk in a summer resort hotel that is always crowded."—Life.

A Hard Nut to Crack.

"Pa," said little Willie, after he had read an absorbingly interesting account of the battle of Lexington, "can you tell me suthin'?"

"I hope so, Willie," said his father, laying aside his paper. "What is it?" "Does it take sixty minute-men to make a man of the hour?" said Willie. —Harper's Weekly.

Variety.

"What'll you have for breakfast, boss?" asked the waiter in a very small town.

"What have you?" "We's 'only got three breakfast dishes."

"What are they?" "Eggs, bacon an' eggs, an' bacon." —Washington Star.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it now before you forget it.

Little Flyer Can Be Used Indoors or in Open Air—It is Quite Easy of Construction.

This little flyer can be used outdoors or indoors. It is so light that it will not mar the ceiling. Out of doors it will attain a height of twenty-five feet and upward and sail about for some time. The total cost is but one cent. All that is used of any value in the construction is a piece of raffia, 28 inches long, which may be found around the house or purchased for one cent. Cut it into the following lengths: One piece 10 inches long, one piece 11 inches long, and two pieces 3 inches long. Find the middle of the 11-inch piece and make a hole in it with a knitting needle. One half inch from each side of this hole bend the raffia back so that the ends meet; fasten them with a piece of fine wire, having it long enough so that the end can be bent into a small hook. Take the 3-inch pieces and fasten one on each side with a thread and a little glue, near the front, as the diagram show.

Janitor Was Sensitive.

The janitor in a Milwaukee school gave up his place the other day. When asked what was the trouble he said: "I'm honest, and I won't stand being suspected if I find a pencil or handkerchief about the school when I'm sweeping I hand or put it up. Every little while the teacher, or some one that is too cowardly to face me, will give me a slur. Why, a little while ago I seen wrote on the board, 'Find the least common multiple.' Well, I looked from cellar to garret for that multiple, and I wouldn't know the thing if I met it. Last night, in big writing on the blackboard, it said, 'Find the greatest common divisor.' Well, I says to myself, 'both of them things are lost now, and I'll be accused of stealing 'em, so I'll quit.'"
